8. The provisions set out in the Third Schedule to this Order, being provisions of Part III of the Act adapted and modified for the purpose of this Order, shall apply in relation thereto.

9. 12. Any question of disputed compensation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 205 of the Act.

13. The provisions of Section 201 of the Act shall apply to this Order and the Order shall take effect on 24 day of September 1998

NOTE: Any person contravening the provisions of this Order by cutting down, uprooting or wilfully destroying a tree, or by wilfully damaging, topping or lopping a tree in such a manner as to be likely to destroy it is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £20,000 or on indictment to a fine. The penalty for any other contravention of this Order is a fine not exceeding £1,000 on summary conviction.

If a tree other than one to which an Order applies as part of a woodland is removed, uprooted or destroyed in contravention of an Order or is removed, uprooted or destroyed or dies at a time when its cutting down or uprooting is authorised only by Section 198(6) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 relating to trees which are dying or dead or have become dangerous, it is the duty of the owner of the land, unless on his application the local planning authority dispense with the requirement, to plant another tree of appropriate size and species at the same place as soon as he reasonably can. Except in emergency, not less than 5 days previous notice of the removal, etc. should be given to the Authority to enable the latter to decide whether or not to dispense with the requirement.

If it is desired to fell any of the trees included in this Order whether included as trees, groups of trees or woodlands and the trees are trees for the felling of which a licence is required under the Forestry Act 1967, application should be made not to the Authority for consent under this Order but to the Conservator of Forests for a licence under that Act (Section 15(5)).
