To whom it may concern.

I write to object to your proposals for the above named route.

I moved to my new address at [REDACTED] and was not aware of these proposals. They were not identified in the local searches carried out by my Solicitor during the purchase of the property and if so, may have dissuaded me in carrying out the purchase.

Your proposed route would intrude on the peace and tranquility of the area ,destroy the natural beauty of the tree lined route along the embankment and would also create more noise and pollution, the very reason for choosing this location.

I sincerely hope that you reconsider these proposals in light of the above.
