

Dear Sir Madam,

This letter is an official objection to the proposed development [redacted]

In the call for sites documentation there is no mention of [redacted]

[redacted] at [redacted]

In your [redacted] call for sites document it states there are no ownership constraints and this land is available for development. There are [redacted] properties [redacted] which certainly do have ownership constraints.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] clearly visible on most of the plans but are not mentioned anywhere, as are the services and even the [REDACTED]

All the residents at [REDACTED] are appaled at these plans and the total disrepect shown to them by WBC and the developers.

I expect an official response from WBC to this objection as we will be seeking legal advise as this plan will directly affect the value, saleability of my property and outlook for this beautiful area. This has caused considerable stress to all the residents concerned.
