

[REDACTED]

Having studied this plan I strongly object to many aspects of it.
While I realise that we must progress and build new houses I feel that this huge plan is too large and complex and does not take into account that in the next 20 years we cannot predict what will happen with the financial affairs of this country and our town.
The whole thing is just a pipe dream of town planners !!!!

Regards

[REDACTED]