

---

Dear sir/madam

I am appalled by the proposal to decimate the area to the south of Warrington. I accept as most reasonable people would that there has to be a certain level of development in this area but this proposal is ridiculous. I believe thousands of disgusted people in this area will fight these proposals to the bitter end.

