Dear Sir / Madam,

I am writing to register my strong objection to the local plan as I believe it will greatly harm the area [REDACTED].
I fail to understand why green belt land is being used for vast amounts of new building especially when population projections seem to suggest that so many new homes are not required.

I am also very concerned that infrastructure plans seem vague at best and fear that the whole area will suffer as a result.

Please, for the good of the residents of the area think again.

Yours faithfully,

Christine Humphries
