

[REDACTED]

---

The present plan envisages a large increase in the population and I wonder if the infrastructure will be able to cope. Here in Lymm we already have schools, GP surgeries, roads and parking close to capacity and my concern is whether the detailed plan will make provision for the increased amenities necessary.

I am also keen to see the green belt preserved as far as possible. I would urge that the maximum use be made of brownfield sites.

[REDACTED]